

STAR JUMPER

Journal of a
Cardboard Genius

Frank Asch

Mission Delayed

Self-proclaimed genius Alex may be inventor of the ultimate cardboard spaceship, but with a meddling little brother like Jonathan, how can he ever hope to make a successful mission? Jonathan's specialty is sticking to Alex like glue — and sticking his nose into his big brother's business.

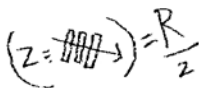

What will happen when the most annoying little brother this side of Alpha Centauri has a genius idea of his own?
