

The Good Garden

How One Family Went from Hunger to Having Enough

Written by Katie Smith Milway

Illustrated by Sylvie Daigneault

CitizenKid.
www.thegoodgarden.org

From the bestselling author of ONE HEN comes the inspiring story of one struggling farming family in Honduras and their journey to growing enough food to meet their needs.

KIDS CAN PRESS

www.kidscanpress.com

Canada Council for the Arts

Conseil des Arts
du Canada

CitizenKid™

A collection of books that inform children about the world and inspire them to be better global citizens

The collection aims to make complex global issues accessible for children ages 8 to 12 — and covers topics such as water conservation, biodiversity, food security, microlending, citizenship, global awareness and more. Each book provides information and resources to inspire children to make a difference, both locally and globally.

The Good Garden

How One Family Went from Hunger to Having Enough

By Katie Smith Milway
Illustrated by Sylvie Daigneault

Based on actual events, an inspiring story that shows us how farms and hopes are transformed as good gardens begin to grow.

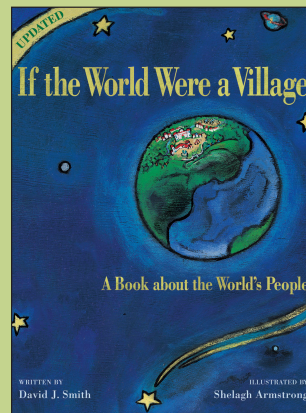

One Hen

How One Small Loan Made a Big Difference

By Katie Smith Milway
Illustrated by Eugenie Fernandes

An inspiring story that shows how microloans, a lending system for people in developing countries, can make a big difference in dealing with the issue of world poverty.

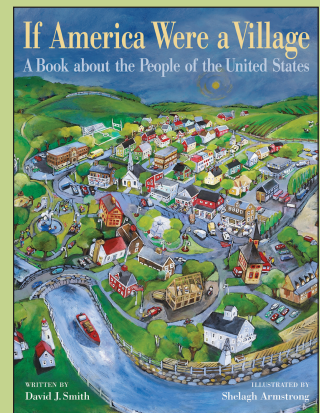

If the World Were a Village

A Book about the World's People

By David J. Smith
Illustrated by Shelagh Armstrong

A groundbreaking perspective of the world's people and their ways of life through the metaphor of a simple village of 100.

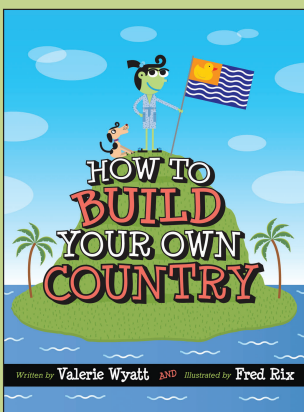

If America Were a Village

A Book about the People of the United States

By David J. Smith
Illustrated by Shelagh Armstrong

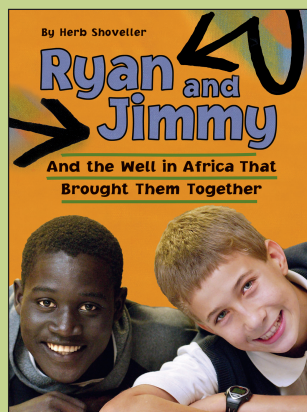

This important book teaches children all about the large, diverse country of America — past, present and future — using a simple metaphor of a village of just 100 people.

How to Build Your Own Country

By Valerie Wyatt
Illustrated by Fred Rix

A unique and informative book that inspires kids to build their own country, complete with a constitution, borders, a national anthem and much more.

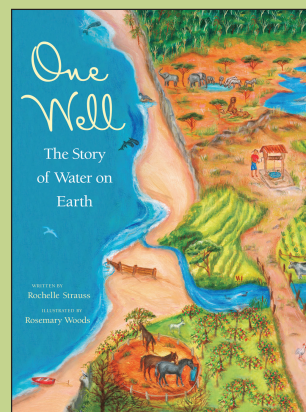

Ryan and Jimmy

And the Well in Africa that Brought Them Together

By Herb Shoveller

The true story of a six-year-old boy who was empowered to build a well halfway around the world and forged a life-changing friendship with a Ugandan boy.

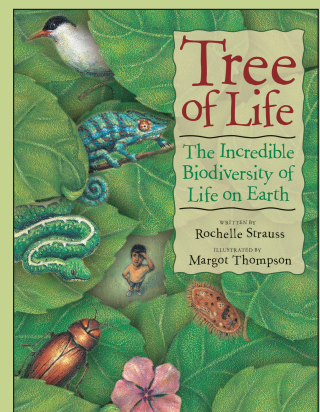

One Well

The Story of Water on Earth

By Rochelle Strauss
Illustrated by Rosemary Woods

Discover how all the world's water is connected and how everyone has the power to protect our global well.

Tree of Life

The Incredible Biodiversity of Life on Earth

By Rochelle Strauss
Illustrated by Margot Thompson

An introduction to biodiversity on our planet through the metaphor of a single tree and its millions of leaves.